Easter Island

Named Easter Island by Dutch explorer Jacob ROGGEVEEN, who first spied it on Easter Day 1722, this rock is the most barren inhabited place on earth. It's nearly 1000 statues, some almost 30 ft. tall and weighing as much as 80 tons.
Are still an enigma.

Archaeologists say there is evidence that the first settlers come from another Polynesia island but they can't agree on which one.
